Tits2Clits is an adult social media platform where adult content creators/influencer are selling their content (Photos, videos, personal things), and share their daily life activities with their fans and follower by selling subscriptions. Also, Models are doing live streams to interact with their fans/followers very closely.

T2C tokens will be the one and only payment method to buy/sell content, subscription, and payout to creators.

We intend to create the token using the Binance smart chain. However, the final decision will be made through a group discussion/voting with all investors.
